

The Pauline Hinch Memorial Award for Staff Development

Pauline Hinch

Pauline Hinch was born in Thunder Bay Ontario. She had an early career in radio with her own shows in both Thunder Bay and Vancouver. She moved to Toronto, married and raised one son. In mid life Pauline went back to school, obtaining her Masters in Library Science in 1975. She joined the North York Public Library immediately thereafter.

By her retirement in 1990 she was the Manager in charge of the Canadiana and Society and Recreation departments at the North York Central Library. Her passion for public librarianship and the high standards to which she adhered earned her the respect and affection of all her colleagues. Blessed with working in a world she loved, Pauline sought to nurture this same affection for libraries and their users among everyone with whom she worked.

The Pauline Hinch Endowment Fund and Award

Named in honour of Pauline Hinch, the Endowment Fund supports the Pauline Hinch Memorial Award for Staff Development.

This Award recognizes Pauline's contribution to the Library, through her outstanding career as well as her contribution to the profession of librarianship. It supports Toronto Library staff pursuing a career in public librarianship and who wish to continue to grow in a gratifying profession.

How can you help?

If you knew Pauline personally or professionally or if you simply believe in Librarianship, you can support the Pauline Hinch Endowment Fund.

Your support will help to strengthen this fund and truly speak to the commitment and dedication to staff development and the career of Librarianship.

You can make a donation to the Pauline Hinch Endowment Fund by contacting the Toronto Public Library Foundation at (416) 393-7123 or by filling out a Pauline Hinch Endowment Pledge Form.